

An effort was made to drape the coffin of the late Henry W. Allen, ex rebel governor of Louisiana, who died recently in the city of Mexico, in a rebel flag, when borne to the grave, but owing to the firmness of the United States Consul, the demonstration was abandoned.