

---

20 A freedman charges Gov. Baker, of Louisiana, with having committed perjury in taking his oath of office. The allegation is that he gave voluntary aid to the rebels in obstructing the Bayou Teche, in order that the Federal fleet might be unable to advance.—Such a charge, made at such a time, looks as if it was trumped up for political effect.

---