

Pastor to Note 30th Anniversary

The Rev. H. D. Skelton, pastor of the Cathedral of Compassion, 701 W. 10th, will observe his 30th year in the ministry with two special services Sunday and Monday.

A musical program at 7 p.m. Sunday will feature the Singing Wills Family of Fort Worth.

Jimmy Davis, former governor of Louisiana and a gospel singer and writer, will appear at services at 7:30 p.m. Monday.

The pastor has helped build seven churches in the Dallas area and one in Sulphur Springs.
