

LOUISIANA, Jan. 15. The illness of Col. Hebert, Governor elect of Louisiana, has grown quite alarming, and at last accounts he was lying very low.

The shipments of cotton at New Orleans during the past week for Europe were 30,000 bales.

The Legislature of the state has adopted a resolution to adjourn sine die on the 25th of February.

---