

CHAS. HENRY, the new Governor of Louisiana, being unable, in consequence of illness, to go to the State Capitol to be inaugurated, was sworn into office at his residence on the 30th instant, by Chief Justice Hustis, in the presence of a committee from each branch of the Legislature.

---