

DEATH OF A DISTINGUISHED LADY.—The Louisiana papers record the death of the wife of Gov. Henry Johnson. The deceased was born in Maryland in 1796, and was a cousin of the author of the "Star-Spangled Banner." Her father was the Hon. Philip B. Key, formerly a distinguished member of Congress, and one of the most eminent lawyers in the United States. Mrs. J. resided many years in Georgetown, D. C., and her husband was for several years a United States senator.—Sen.
