

THE CITY.

Protestant Episcopal Convention.

SECOND DAY.

The Convention met yesterday morning, at the hour appointed, in Trinity Church, and, after Morning Prayer had been said by the Right Reverend, the Bishop, the roll was called. Several additional parishes were found to be represented by clerical and lay delegates present, among whom was ex-Governor Johnson, representing the Church of the Nativity, Rosedale.

The Session was purely a business one, and consisted of hearing the Bishop's Annual Address, showing the affairs of the Diocese to be in a prosperous and encouraging condition, and the usual Diocesan elections.

The Rev. Dr. Leacock, and the Rev. Messrs. Hedges and Tinder, and Messrs. Grimshaw, Dix and Gulon were elected the Standing Committee for the year 1859-60. Rev. Messrs. Phillips and Stickney, and Messrs. Guion and Chambers were chosen Trustees, on the part of this Diocese, of the General Theological Seminary of the Church at New York. Rev. Drs. Leacock, Lewis and Goodrich, Rev. Messrs. Trader and Hedges, Hon. Henry Johnson, and Messrs. Laphier, Gulon, Lobdell, Grimshaw and McConnell were elected Trustees of the Protestant Episcopal Association; and the following were chosen to represent the Diocese of Louisiana in the Triennial Convention to be held in October, at Richmond, Va.: Rev. Dr. Leacock, Rev. Messrs. Hedges, Tinder and Guion, clerical; and Dr. Mercer, and Messrs. Guion, Lobdell and Cleveland, lay Deputies.

In the course of his interesting Annual Address, Bishop Polk spoke very favorably of the progress made towards establishing the proposed University of the South, towards which between two hundred and fifty and three hundred thousand dollars it seems, have already been raised.

The Convention will hold one more day's session, meeting at Trinity Church, this forenoon, and probably adjourning this evening.

MONEY FOUND.—Michael O'Hara, arrested some days ago on the charge made by Anthony Gallagher, who accused him of having stolen $50 in money, one silver watch, a gold breast pin and a Panama hat, resides in Carrollton. His house was searched yesterday by virtue of a warrant, and the sum of $120 found therein. We do not hear of the money having been identified as Gallagher's.

THE GRAND JURY.—The Grand Jury yesterday found a true bill against Wesley Harris, f. m. c., for murder, but ignored the charge against J. C. Howitt and others, for keeping a banking game, at which money is hazarded.

The Grand Jury adjourned to Friday, next week, at 10 o'clock, which is their regular day of assembling.

DEATH IN THE LOCK-UP.—Yesterday, a Frenchman named Pierre Cotolan, aged about sixty years, who had been arrested on the charge of stealing wood on the Old Basin, the day previous, was found dead in his cell. When the officers went in the morning to take him up before the Recorder, they found him very ill and complaining a great deal; it was determined to send him to the Hospital, but when, after getting the order, the officer obtained a cab to take him up, he found the old man dead. The Coroner held an inquest, which resulted in the verdict of "Death caused by intemperance and exposure."

BURGLARY.—The shoe store No. 145 Rampart street, near Poydras, was broken open and robbed last night. A short while after—at half-past one o'clock A. M.—the watchman on Dryades street found, between Lafayette and Poydras, a wheelbarrow containing three sacks of shoes. The thief hearing the watchman approaching, no doubt ran off, abandoning his ill-gotten booty.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—A German named Jacob Arnig made a horrible gash across his throat, this morning, with the intention of getting rid of a life which had become a burthen to him. Officer Steele proceeded to Arnig's house, on St. James street, near Pacanier, upon hearing the fact, and found him lying on a mattress, his throat cut, and bleeding profusely. On a table in the room something was written in German, probably the explanation of the rash act.

We hear the following version of the probable cause of this attempt. It appears that Arnig is a married man; a short time ago his wife's family arrived from Germany, and it was expected that Arnig would support them; this he refused to do, however, remarking very reasonably that he had married the daughter, but not the whole family. The disappointed old folks took a house to themselves yesterday, and Arnig's wife, forgetting that the Church tells a wife to leave everything to follow her husband, went away with her mother, expecting, perhaps, to bring Arnig to terms. The poor weak fellow could not stand this; the blow struck him to the heart, and he resolved to leave a world in which he had no more hopes of happiness. The physician who examined Arnig's wound pronounced it not very dangerous, and hopes are entertained of his recovery. We learn that his wife having heard of the sad news, immediately went to him, repentant and mad with grief. If Arnig recovers, he may have secured his domestic peace and happiness by cutting his throat. Rather a dangerous experiment it is true, and one that hen-pecked husbands will probably not follow.

Police Matters.

BEFORE ASSISTANT RECORDER MURROE.—William Beach was examined this morning on the charge of assault and battery upon the person of Martha Floyd, and sent before the First District Court under $500 bonds.

John K. Caisholm, charged with stabbing Victor Condon with a dirk, yesterday, at Condon's house, corner of Poyfatre and Camp streets, was sent to the Parish Prison to await the result of the stabbing.

Thomas Coolan and James Gallagher were examined on the charge of stealing a lot of carpenter's tools from the Sisters' New Hospital. Coolan was put under $250 bonds to keep the peace during three months, and Gallagher sent to the Workhouse for three months as a vagrant.

John Mahoney, alias James Haynes, charged with stealing a white bull-terrier dog, valued at $25, the property of special officer Smith Icard, was sent before the First District Court. Bail $500.

Frederick Fry, charged by Susan Fry with assaulting, beating and abusing her, was put under $500 bonds to keep the peace during six months.

Bridget Action brings an action against Ellen Nestor for insult and abuse. The case will be examined on the 15th.

John Mahar charges that on Friday evening, one Patrick McGovern did unprovokedly assault, strike and knock him down, and not satisfied with this, bite off a portion of his under lip. The carnivorous Patrick will be examined on the 14th inst., and meanwhile was sent to the Parish Prison without privilege of bail.

Edward Konelson, charged with breaking open the dwelling house of Martha Gauslin, on Melpomene, between Freret and Solls streets, and stealing therefrom one bracelet, one brooch and two gold studs, will answer the charge on the 14th inst.

Bill, a slave of Mr. Holmes, charged with being Konelson's accomplice in the above stated burglary, will be examined on the same day.
