

RICHMOND, August 13.

Some of the citizens of Richmond understanding early in the week, that John Clopton, esq. their Representative in Congress would be in town for the first time since his return, proposed giving him a dinner on Saturday last, at Mr. Goodall's tavern, which was done by a number of his Friends. They had also appointed a committee, consisting of

Dr. William Faushee,

George C. Taylor,

Alexander M'Rea,

Philip Norborne Nicholas,

Thomas Bolling Robertson,

} Esq's.

to draft and deliver an Address to Mr. Clopton, the following was presented by Capt Nicholas, in presence of the rest of the committee, and a numerous & respectable company.
