

☞ We may now consider Wyncam Robertson, Esq. as acting governor of the Old Dominion,—as Littleton Waller Lazemell was to resign the gubernatorial chair on the first of April, being yesterday. Lieut. Governor Robertson discharges the executive functions for one year, as no Chief Magistrate will be elected in Virginia, until the annual meeting of the Legislature again takes place.

---