Scattered showers, humid

AUGUSTA	SKIES
Junsel loday	7:57 p.m
unrise tomorrow	6:58 a.m
unrise tomorrow	and rises tomorrow at 2:
å a.m.	9
New Moon The planet Venus now is pass	April Z
the planet Venus now is pass	ing to the east of Jupiter
the morning sky. Nex! Feb	ruary, we will see Venus
ess to the east of Jupiter in t	he evening sky.

COLUMBIA (AP) — South Carolina lake levels reported by the National Weather Service: Clark Hill 330.4 feet, about % feet above normal parmietri Reservair deus ree, about 121s feet above parmietrodi. full stage. Lake Marion 76.7 feet, about 121 feet below full stage. Lake Moultrie 75.0 feet, about 124 feet below full stage. Lake Murray 357.1 feet, about 27s feet below full

WEATHER OUTLOOK — Easter Sunday will find generally fair weather favoring the nation with skies ranging from sunsy to partly cloudy. Scattered showers, however, may break out across parts of the Middle Atlantic states, Pacific Northwest and from the Gulf Coast into the Tennessee Valley. Pleasantly warm air should circulate over most of the country except for cold breezes in the North Central states. (Sunday Chronicle-Herald—UPI Telephoto Man)

Masters Tournament

NOW THE PRESSURE shifted back claim to fame always has been with the

HE STARTED OFF as if he were going to run off and hide that fabled green jacket so no one could find it. He parred the first hole.

On the 555-yard par five second, Stockton put his drive into the rough

Former dean of diplomats dies at 87

LAFAYETTE, La. (AP) — Jefferson Caffery, ranked as dean of the United States diplomatic corps before his re-tirement in 1955, died here Saturday aft-ernoon. He was 87.

pion began his charge.

PLAYER, CLAD IN black, had started the day five shots back. He birdied two from eight feet but still was six behind when he went to No. 12

He rapped a seven iron to one foot for his first birdie. Player then blasted to 15 feet on 13, sank a six-footer on 14, a 20-footer on 15 and a six-footer on 16 for his string. He actually could have had three more during that stretch because he two-putted from 12 feet on 11, 20 feet on 17 and 25 feet on 18.

"Of course I'm excited," Player said. "Any time you break 70 on this course, you have to be excited."

He said he actually didn't play as well, perhaps worse, than he did while shooting 71-71 the first two days. "I averaged 36 putts a round the first two days," he said. "Today, I just holed some putts." ernoon. He was 87.

Caffery had been hospitalized for the last several weeks following a fall in which he broke a hip. Hospital officials said he suffered complications after an operation.

operation.

He held the distinction of having served as chief of mission longer than any other foreign service officer in America's history, holding the rank of ambassador for 20 years.
President Dwight D. Eisenhower labeled Caffery's career "brilliant" when he left his last post, ambassador to Egypt.

when he left his last post, and to Egypt.
Caffery was appointed to that ambassadorship in 1949 by President Harry S Truman and played a major role in settling British-Egyptian disputes over Suez Canal bases.
He was asked to stay on nearly three years after normal retirement age to handle American affairs in that hotspot.

HE WAS SENT TO Egypt from France, where he had been the first ambassador to liberated France. He reopened the embassy in Paris, which had been closed during the German occupation, and served as chief of mission during one of the most critical periods in Franco-American relations.

The scion of an aristocratic family from Lafayette, Caffery served as personal emissary for five successive presidents, from Calvin Coolidge through Eisenhower.

After graduating from Tulane University in 1906, he joined the Foreign Service "for a lark," as he once told an

Service to a man, and interviewer.

"Looking back on it now," he said at the time of his retirement, "there's nothing better I could have done."

QE2 steams into New York

Into New York

NEW YORK (UPI) — The troubled Queen Elizabeth 2 steamed into port saturday minutes behind its rescuer, the Norwegian cruise ship Sea Venture. The Cunard liner berthed at Pier 84 on the Hudson River in preparation for a crossing to Great Britain scheduled for Tuesday, the ship's first transatlantic crossing of the year. Hours after setting sail from New York for a scheduled cruise to the Caribbean, all three of the QE2's boilers broke down April I. The 1,880 passengers were transferred without incident in launches to the Sea Venture which took them to Bermuda. They were flown back to the United States on chartered jetliners and their fares refunded at a cost of more than $1 million.

The QE2 was repaired in Hamilton before sailing to New York.

Aiken Easter Egg Hunt rescheduled

AIKEN — The Annual Easter Egg Hunt, postponed due to rain Saturday is rescheduled for 2 p.m. Sunday at Vir-ginia Acres Park. Hundreds of dyed "rabbit" and can-dy eggs will be hidden in the park by the sponsors, the Aiken Jayces and the Aiken Recreation Dept. Children from toddlers to 8-year-olds are invited.

and hit a four-wood second shot short of the green. That left him 90 yards short, but he holed it.

The ball hit short of the flag, ran straight to the cup and dropped in for an eagle three.

He flew his approach shot eight feet from the flag on three and rammed it in for a birdle. That save him three an eagle three.

He flew his approach shot eight feet from the flag on three and rammed it in for a birdie. That gave him three strokes on par in three holes and he suddenly had a four-stroke lead.

Dave saved par from a bunker on four and mintained his advantage with steady pars through the 10th hole. But he hit short, chipped on and lipped out a 10-foot putt for his first bogey in two days.

He had a four-shot lead on Nicklaus and as much as seven on a Player at the urn when the little 1961 Masters chamber.

days.

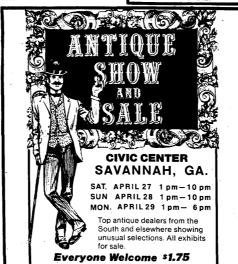

He had a four-shot lead on Nicklaus and as much as seven on Player at the turn when the little 1961 Masters champion began his charge.

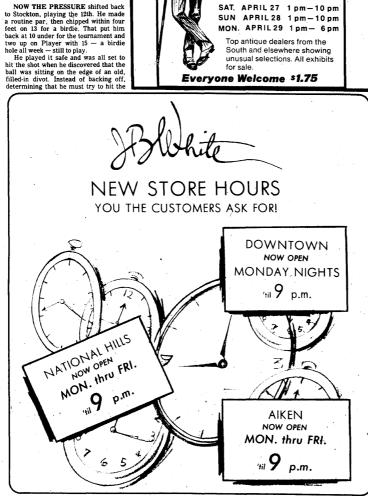

ago yesterday ago yesterday ras 90 in 1922 as 37 in 1940 RIVER BULLETIN A.M. 3:21 9:29 4:14 10:25 5:14 11:10 6:14 P.M. 3:40 9:42 4:38 10:32 5:37 11:39 6:30 12:08 7:25 12:53 e8:11 1:39 8:40 2:19 7:03 12:30 7:55 1:18 8:36 2:08

ding 7:30 P.M.

ecializing in Residential Re-roof JOHNS-MANVILLE ROOFING Applied By JONES ROOFING & CONSTRUCTION CO.

Georgia Ave. 279-1756
MASTER CHG. OR INTERBANK CHG.
28 Years Experience
Cost — Best Quality — Terms WHY PAY MORE?

Japanese workers return to jobs

TOKYO (UPI) — Some six million Japanese workers, protesting against crippling inflation, returned to their jobs Saturday after winning big wage hikes from managements already troubled by the nation's alling economy. The workers, spearheaded by 280,000 Japan National Railway (JNR) Union members, made the life of more than 65 million Japanese a misery Thursday and Friday by staging a massive walkout.

They agreed to call off their strikes that had paralyzed the nation's entire transportation system after union leaders won more than 90 per cent of their wage demands for them.

9.90 $20 & $25 value CAPLESS WIGS - ONE WEEK SALE

Go "head first" into spring . . . with any of these light and airy capless wigs! Choose short, long, or medium length styles . . . all soft, fluffy and wonderfully versatile. In natural colors, frosteds and greys.

